

Reimbursement Policy

Policy ID: FIN-REIM-001 Version: 1.0 Effective Date: 2026-01-01 Policy Owner: Finance

1. Purpose

This policy defines reimbursement eligibility, documentation requirements, claim timelines, meal limits, hotel reimbursement, and non-reimbursable expenses.

2. General Reimbursement Rules

A reimbursement claim is eligible only if:

- the expense is business-related
- the expense has prior approval where required
- valid receipts or invoices are submitted
- the claim is submitted within the defined timeline
- the expense is within policy limits

Reimbursement approval is not guaranteed. Finance may reject claims that do not meet policy conditions.

3. Claim Submission Timeline

Employees must submit reimbursement claims within 15 calendar days of expense date or travel completion date.

Late claims require finance approval and may be rejected if there is no valid reason for delay.

4. Receipt Requirements

Receipts are mandatory for:

- hotel stays
- local transport
- meals above INR 500
- client entertainment
- any claim above INR 1,000

Receipts must clearly show date, amount, vendor name, and expense description.

5. Meal Reimbursement

Meal reimbursement is allowed for approved business travel.

For same-day domestic business travel, employees may claim meals up to INR 800 per day, provided valid receipts are submitted.

For overnight domestic travel, employees may claim meals up to INR 1,500 per day, provided valid receipts are submitted.

Alcohol, tobacco, personal snacks, and non-business entertainment are not reimbursable.

6. Hotel Reimbursement

Hotel reimbursement is allowed only for approved overnight business travel.

Required documents for hotel reimbursement:

- hotel invoice
- payment receipt
- approved travel request
- check-in and check-out dates
- GST details where applicable

Hotel reimbursement is not available for same-day travel unless overnight stay was separately approved.

7. Local Transport Reimbursement

Local transport during business travel is reimbursable if supported by receipts or ride invoices.

Personal commuting between home and regular office location is not reimbursable.

8. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

The following expenses are not reimbursable:

- alcohol and tobacco
- personal entertainment
- personal shopping
- expenses without business purpose
- expenses without required approval
- fines, penalties, or traffic violations
- personal preference upgrades

9. Policy Exceptions

Any exception requires written approval from Finance.

Finance review is mandatory for claims that are unclear, incomplete, above policy limit, or outside standard policy rules.
