

Travel Policy

Policy ID: TRV-001 Version: 1.0 Effective Date: 2026-01-01 Policy Owner: Administration and Finance

1. Purpose

This policy defines rules for domestic travel, international travel, same-day business travel, travel approvals, booking requirements, and post-travel documentation.

2. Domestic Business Travel

Domestic business travel must be approved by the employee's reporting manager before travel is booked.

Travel requests should include:

- business purpose
- destination
- travel dates
- estimated cost
- client or project reference, if applicable

3. Same-Day Domestic Business Travel

Same-day domestic business travel is allowed when the employee returns to their home city on the same calendar day.

For same-day domestic travel:

- manager approval is required before travel
- meal reimbursement is governed by the Reimbursement Policy
- local transport reimbursement requires receipts
- hotel reimbursement is not applicable unless overnight stay is approved separately

4. Overnight Domestic Travel

Overnight domestic travel requires manager approval.

Hotel bookings should use company-approved vendors where available. If a company-approved vendor is not available, the employee must submit a valid hotel invoice for reimbursement.

5. International Business Travel

International business travel requires:

- reporting manager approval
- business unit head approval
- finance approval
- travel desk confirmation before ticket booking

International travel requests must be submitted at least 15 working days before the travel date except in urgent client situations.

6. Travel Booking

Employees should not book travel personally unless the travel desk has approved self-booking.

Travel booked without approval may not be reimbursed.

7. Travel Changes and Cancellation

Changes to approved travel must be communicated to the manager and travel desk.

Additional charges caused by personal preference changes may not be reimbursed.

8. Policy Limitations

This policy defines travel approval requirements. Reimbursement eligibility, receipt requirements, and claim limits are defined separately in the Reimbursement Policy.
